A young man over in old town attempted suicide yesterday. He was discovered in time and his life spared.

Moses Babcock and St. John may leave Santa Fe for Denver, and expect to reach Marisco, Illinois, in about three weeks.

W. K. Cleary, business manager of the Las Vegas chapter, is in the city, and called at the Citizens' office. He returns north to-night.

J. A. Connerford, the late writer for the Albuquerque publication, will leave for the city of Mexico. He says he is "going."

Nelson J. Hyde, the successful gold hunter, is in from Hill canon, where he is establishing the basis of a little fortune. He is accompanied by his wife.

Prof. Ramsey, of the academy, has purchased a business college at Fresno, Cal., and will in a few weeks move to that city, where he has a fine opening and will do well.

C. H. Morehouse, division passenger and ticket agent, and C. C. Carpenter, traveling agent, came up from El Paso last night, and left this morning for the White Oaks country.

H. B. Ferguson left this morning for Las Vegas, expecting to return the evening. He stated to the Citizens that he intends to get heavily interested in the Coal mine this summer.

The other afternoon the sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McEvily, while riding around the inner enclosure house, received a kick over the eye which came very near resulting fatality.

J. L. Mooney and Miss Willie Manning, of San Antonio, Texas, were in the same, Texas, William Mooney, son of J. L. Mooney, and wife arrived last night from Flagstaff, Arizona, and are at the San Felipe.

Mrs. John Morrison and children have arrived in the city from Gallup, after settling on the ranch just across the river, purchased last year from Roman Romero from R. H. Dunbar. Mr. Morrison is expected from Gallup in a few weeks.

L. Lowenstein, of the dry goods firm of Price Bros., Socorro, and wife, came up from the south last night and remained the guests of Simon Stern and wife. They left this morning for New York, where they will take the steamer Normandie for Europe.

Mrs. Nunes received word this morning that her favorite niece, Mrs. C. R. Hager, wife of Rev. Hager, a missionary, died at Canton, China, on March 17. Mrs. Hager was a most excellent exemplary lady, and was with her husband in his missionary work among the Chinese.

New Sunday, at 2 o'clock, at the fair grounds, the Barbers' Hall club will have bats with the Albuquerque coots in the first game of the spring season for the championship of the city. Capt. McDonald will have his team in good trim, while Capt. Apachita is expected to have his strong teamers on hand.

Two tramps, with "trade or bust" in their eyes, assaulted Conductor Murray's south-bound passenger train last night at Cerrillos, but the crew drove them off. They also attempted to steal a ride on the branch to Santa Fe by hand, but failed. Railroad officers are after the tramps.

Excellent hotel No. 1 D. of H. A. O. I. W. met in regular session last evening. After lodger adjourned the dining room doors were thrown open to admit the members of Kneeler's lodge, who partook of excellent pie and delicious coffee. All had an exceedingly good time. Long live the D. of H.

Yesterday afternoon the well known contractors and carpenters, Strong & Hemmings, were let the bid to erect Joe Barnett's post office building for the government. J. M. Whelock is the architect, and he expects to have the building completed and ready for occupancy in about a month.

The condition of W. H. Johnson, editor, who was run over by the car at Wallace a few weeks ago while on his way to this city from Santa Fe, is growing worse, and he is likely to succumb to the inevitable before many hours. The accident happened on March 27, and when brought to this city to his home on West Lead Avenue—was found to be horribly injured, necessitating the amputation of the left hand, the right leg between the ankle and knee, and a portion of the left foot. William Green and Henry Winston, two of Johnson's intimate friends, are setting up with the injured man.

THEY ARE ANXIOUS.

The Athletics of Santa Fe are Preparing for April 28.

In twelve days, Sunday, April 28, the base ball season in the Rio Grande valley will be opened here in earnest, with visiting club, the Athletics of Santa Fe, and the secretary, Horace H. Wyckoff, writes the following:

SANTA FE, April 15.
W. T. Mcbright, Manager of Albuquerque baseball club, has written to say that our visitors expect to play on April 28, and we are glad to hear that everything is satisfactory. The Athletics of Santa Fe will be here April 24th, 25th, Saturday evening and will be in good form for Sunday's game. From present indications we will put up a strong game. Several Santa Feans will accompany the Athletics and will "test" from the "White house back," you can rest assured.

The personnel of your team I would like to have for publication Saturday's New Mexico. Kindly remember me to the Browns.

Horace H. Wyckoff,
Secretary.
